

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

E. B. WOLCOTT POST, NO. 1,

DEPARTMENT OF WISCONSIN,

GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.

JUNE 1st, 1892.

PRESS OF ROBERTS & GILLETT,
MILWAUKEE.

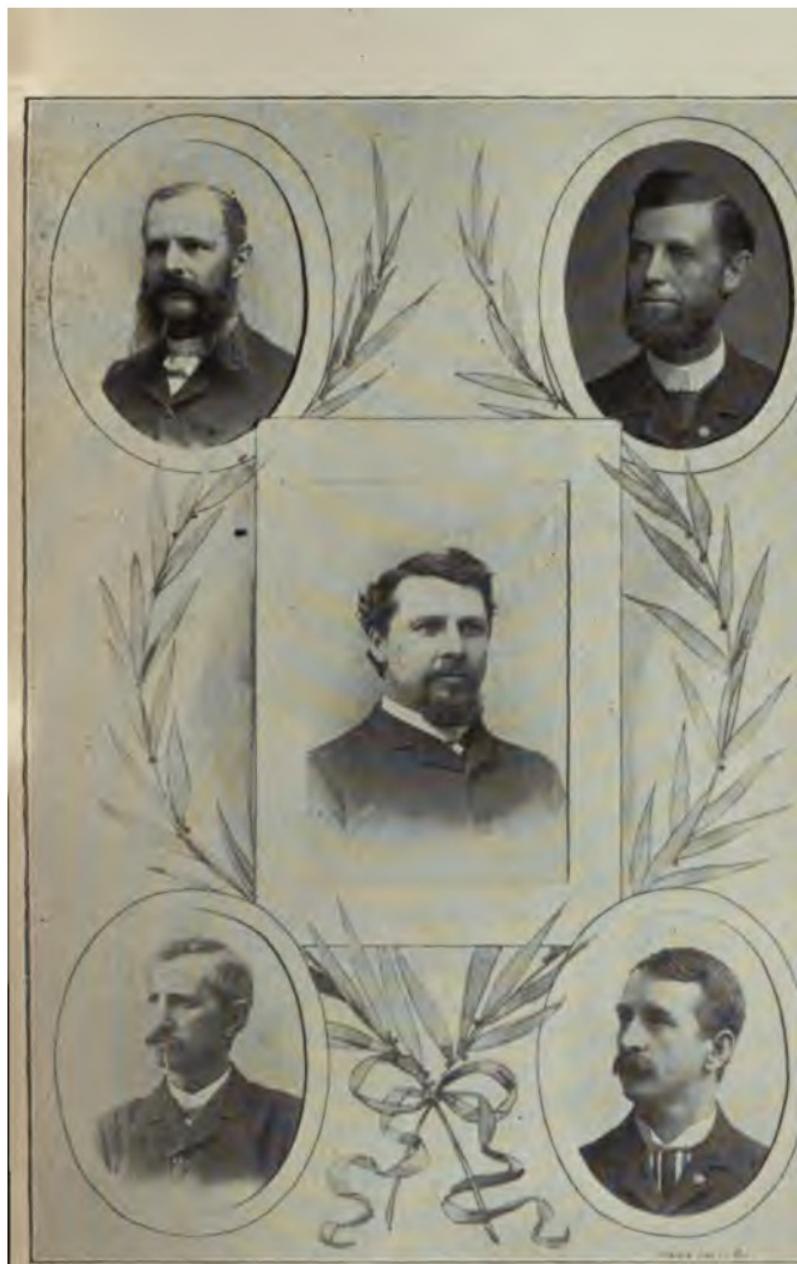

O. W. CARLSON.

THE GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.

"NO child can be born into it; no proclamation of President, edict of King or Czar can command admission; no university or institution of learning can issue a diploma authorizing its holder to enter; no act of Congress or Parliament secures recognition; the wealth of a Vanderbilt cannot purchase the position; its doors swing open only upon presentation of the bit of paper, torn, worn, begrimed it may be, which certifies to an honorable discharge from the armies or navies of the Nation during the war against rebellion," and, unlike any other association, no "new blood" can come in; there are no growing ranks from which recruits can be drawn into the Grand Army of the Republic. With the consummation of peace through victory its rolls were closed forever. Its lines are steadily and swiftly growing thinner, and the ceaseless tramp of its columns is with ever-lessening tread; the gaps in the picket line grow wider; day by day details are made from the reserve, summoned into the shadowy regions, to return to touch elbows no more, until by and by only a solitary sentinel shall stand guard waiting till the bugle call from beyond shall muster out the last comrade of the Grand Army of the Republic.

HISTORY.

ON January 14th, 1880, there was organized in the City of Milwaukee, in Boynton's Hall (the old First Presbyterian Church), E. B. Wolcott Post No. 1, Department of Wisconsin, G. A. R.

It was named for one of Wisconsin's most honored citizens, E. B. Wolcott, a gentleman who had always taken a great interest in the soldiers of the late war, and to whom much is due for the location, at Milwaukee, of the National Soldier's Home for Disabled Veterans. He was born at Benton, Yates Co., N. Y., on October 18th, 1804. He took his diploma in medicine and received a degree from the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Western New York, in 1833; was appointed an army surgeon January 1st, 1836. He resigned and established himself in regular practice in Milwaukee in 1839, and accepted many positions of trust, always doing his whole duty. He was Surgeon General of Wisconsin during the war of the rebellion. He was a distinguished physician, a true friend and a good citizen. He died at Milwaukee, January 5th, 1880, universally mourned.

The Post was mustered by the then Department Commander Griff. J. Thomas, assisted by comrades from Robert Chivas and Veteran Posts.

The charter members are: W. L. Pavey, A. B. F. Way, S. F. Hammond, Frank W. Harwood, Florian J. Ries, W. E. Coates, J. P. Rundle, O. L. Rosenkrans, Henry A. Valentin, Henry G. Rogers, Henry C. Koch, C. P. Huntington, Edward Ferguson, I. M. Bean, Garth W. James and Charles H. Boynton.

The number 1 was given by the Department Commander, the original Post No. 1, at Madison, being at the time dormant.

Nearly all the charter members had been connected with Posts in Milwaukee which had previously surrendered their charters. The interest manifested at the organization of the new Post gave promise however, that it was not intended to follow the course of its predecessors.

The old Knights of Pythias' Hall on Wisconsin Street was the Post's first regular quarters. The Post held its first meeting in the hall over No. 1 Grand Ave., on December 20th, 1882. The organization continued to grow, and soon these quarters became too small for the large and increasing membership, and early in 1886 the Post removed to quarters in the Light Horse Squadron Armory building, where it remained nearly five years. On October 10th, 1890, the Post left the quarters in the armory, and, preceded by its drum corps, marched to the handsome Post rooms in the Academy of Music building, where it is located at this time, and which are models of neatness and tasteful adornment.

Our membership represents service in organizations from twenty-one states, four of which are southern—West Virginia, Kentucky, Florida and Missouri.

The 24th Regiment Wisconsin Vol. Inf'ty has the largest representation, there being thirty-nine of its members in the Post. Two hundred and fifty of the total membership are natives of the United States, and eighty-two are of foreign birth.

Some members are still suffering from open wounds received in battle, and are constantly under the surgeon's care on account thereof.

There were very few battles fought on land or sea, during the late war that cannot be described by participants now members of Wolcott Post.

EDWARD FERGUSON.

Every branch of the service, and every prison pen of the South has its representatives therein. The number confined in Andersonville and Libby prisons being the most numerous.

The interest in the Grand Army of the Republic among the members is increasing as time passes. An effort was made some years ago to hold meetings semi-monthly. This was changed to once a week after a trial of just one month.

Of the sixteen charter members whose names have been mentioned, three have attended their last Post meeting on earth; three have removed to and become identified with other departments, while the remaining ten are regular attendants at Post meetings, and have the gratification of witnessing the splendid development of the Post they assisted in organizing more than a decade ago, and which is now the largest Post in the Department of Wisconsin, and represents a comradeship of three hundred and thirty-two members.

The Post attended National Encampments as an organization at St. Louis, Columbus, Milwaukee, Boston and Detroit, and has members who attended every National Encampment thus far held. Two of its members were representatives to the First National Encampment held at Indianapolis in 1866, the year in which the order had its birth, and many became members of the order early in that year.

The total number that has been mustered into the Post is four hundred and eight. Of these seventeen died, four were honorably discharged, eleven were dropped from the rolls, thirty-three were transferred, four entered on the rolls twice, seven were suspended, and three hundred and thirty-two are members in good standing at the present time.

The youngest member, Charles W. Mott, was born April 27th, 1852, enlisted as a musician, June 2d, 1864, in Co. A, 6th Michigan Heavy Artillery, and served until August 20th, 1865.

The next youngest member—Bernard McNaney, was born March 2d, 1850, enlisted as private February 5th, 1863, and carried a musket until his discharge, Aug 6th, 1865.

The oldest member in the post is comrade M. P. Hanson, born at Buxton, Maine, June 11th, 1812, entered the service as Assistant Surgeon of the 2nd Wis. Vol. Cavalry, Sept. 10th, 1861, served until Dec. 20th 1865, and mustered out as Surgeon.

The next oldest member is Harrison C. Hobart, who was born in Ashburnham, Massachusetts, Jan. 31st 1815, enlisted April 23rd, 1861, and after promotions in the 21st Wis. Vol. Inf'ty, was mustered out July 22nd, 1865, as Colonel and Brevet Brigadier General.

The different branches of service represented are: Volunteer Infantry, two-hundred and fifty-eight; Volunteer Cavalry, twenty-four; Volunteer Artillery, thirty-six; Fremont Guards, one; U. S. Regular Cavalry, two; U. S. Regular Infantry, six; U. S. Colored Troops, two; U. S. Regular Artillery, one; U. S. Sharp Shooters, one; Navy, over ten; Veteran Reserve Corps, four.

The largest number of wounds received by any one member of Wolcott Post is seven. They were received by Henry G. Rogers; one each at Perryville and Stone River, and five at Chicamauga.

Quite a number received two or more wounds, and had the distribution been more equal, it is safe to say that there were wounds enough received by members of this Post to record one wound to each of over half its members.

The full number of arms and legs is not left to all the members of the Post. Many were left on the battle field.

Many of the members were prisoners of war. Comrade Hobart was one of those confined in Libby prison, and tunneled his way under the prison walls and escaped to the Union lines.

BYRON H. KILBOURN.

WOLCOTT POST COAT OF ARMS.

Comrade W. A. Collins was made a prisoner of war, and confined in Libby, Danville, Charlotte, Macon, Savannah, Charleston and Columbia prisons. He escaped from the latter, was recaptured with the aid of blood hounds and returned to prison. He then made a second escape and succeeded in reaching the Union lines.

Comrade Schemmerhorn participated in forty-four battles, commencing with Big Bethel, Va., June 20th, 1861. He was wounded twice.

There are quite a number in the Post who enlisted the very day the President's first call for troops was published, April 15th, 1861. There are others who were in the regular army at the time. Some continued to serve for a long time after the war.

The Post has steadily gained in membership, there being a net gain every year since it organization. The smallest gain, three, was in 1881; the largest gain, eighty-five, in 1889.

The largest number of deaths in any one year, five, was in 1890.

For five years during the Post's existence death made no demands on it.

Nearly every regiment or battery leaving the state, is represented amongst its membership.

The total number of regiments and batteries represented in the Post, three hundred and forty-five, also many ships of the navy.

The average age of the members of E. B. Wolcott Post is a little less than fifty-one and one-half years each, while the average time each served in the army or navy during the war against rebellion is two years, two months and eleven days.

The record of wounded in battle and prisoners of war is incomplete as many of the comrades failed to report this portion of their personal history.

EXPLANATORY NOTES.

1. The following pages "Comrades," show in first column the member's relative number when mustered into Post. By reference to numbers in last column of table on last page, (showing the relative annual increase, loss, etc.), and year opposite in first column, it gives the year the comrade was mustered into Post.
2. The * indicates that the comrade was a prisoner of war.
3. The † shows that the comrade was wounded in the service.
4. The figures in last column show within less than fifteen days the total number of months service in all enlistments between April 14th, 1861, and April 14th, 1866, or to the close of the volunteer service, which in some cases, extended to May, 1866.

CORRECTIONS.

Since the first part of this roster was printed, there have been several musters of recruits into the Post, thus changing the figures made in the historical sketch. The table on page 41 shows the condition of the Post up to date.

The total membership of the Post now is three hundred and thirty-seven. The largest on the rolls in good standing since organization.

In the list of Comrades, on page 23, it should read Oscar W. Carlson, etc.

On page 31 it should read Florian J. Ries, 1st Sergt., 1st Lt., D, 16th Wis. Infy., etc.

On the same page after the name of Chas. D. Rogers, etc., the service should indicate 24 months.
